

WELCOME TO LUSAKA

The InterContinental Lusaka is located on a tree-lined avenue in the Embassy area of Lusaka, close to the Judiciary and international corporate head offices.

BUSINESS OR LEISURE

Guests staying at the InterContinental Lusaka, on either business or leisure, can enjoy accommodation in a class of its own, from the exclusive Club Floor, with its private lounge offering complimentary breakfast and evening cocktails to the two 143m² Presidential suites. Choose the room to suit your style from 158m² Deluxe bedrooms, 46 Club Floor bedrooms, 15 Business suites and 3 Executive suites.

Those looking to relax or work up a sweat will love the modern health and fitness centre with sauna, steam room outdoor pool and three tennis courts. Other facilities include the business centre and a small arcade of shops and banking facilities.

The Savannah restaurant with its colonial charm overlooking beautiful gardens, offer a wide variety of international dishes teamed up with a Zambian corner and a delicious evening barbeque.

The Safari Bar awaits you with exciting cocktail creations and a wide choice of wines.

At the Rhythm's Café relax and watch what happens in the busy lobby whilst having a sip at Lusaka's best Cappuccino.

Rosso is a classic trattoria / pizzeria which gives the guest the feeling of being transported to Italy. Offering straight forward dishes such as antipasti, pizza, pasta, gnocchi, lasagna as well as a few signature dishes made from the finest ingredients. The homely decor includes items from the Italian daily life providing casual, fast, simple outgoing and consistent service.

You can also enjoy our in-room dining experience with special creations from our well known chef.

The hotel's extensive conference and banquet facilities include the Ballroom that is one of Lusaka's largest conference venue, catering to state banquets, product launches and conferences. The other 8 conference rooms can host events tailor-made to your requirements with space for 2 to 600 people. Specific rooms feature natural light and all functions are operated under the InterContinental meetings standards.

5-STAR SERVICE

However guests are drawn to timeless Africa with its unique spirit of culture, scenery and people, it is the passion of this hotel's staff to deliver an authentic experience that sets it apart from other 5-star hotels, and makes it, the hotel of choice for discerning travellers. Lusaka is the hub to enjoy several national parks, such as North and South Luangwa renowned for their walking safaris and of course the world famous Victoria Falls.
